Lesson 12

Parables and Miracles

As Jesus travelled through the country many people began to follow Him. He began to teach them as one having authority, but yet using simple parables that the people could understand. The well known parable of the sower shows how important it is that the seed of God's Word may fall into a heart that is prepared by God.

He also shows His power over nature by stilling the storm. As in creation he only had to speak and it came to pass, so he only had to command the wind and it stopped.

A. Parables - Reading Mark 4: 1- 34

Fill in the blanks.

Jesus entered into a ship and taught the _____ many things by _____.

A sower went out to _____. Some of the seed fell by the way side and the _____ devoured it. Some fell on _____ ground and since it didn't have much earth for the roots it _____ up, but _____ away when the sun came. Other seed fell among the _____ and were choked by the thorns as they grew. But some seed fell on good ground and it yielded fruit, some _____, some _____ and even some _____.

Then Jesus told His _____ the meaning of this parable. He said that the seed was the _____. The seed that fell by the wayside was the seed that _____ immediately takes away. The seed on the stony ground is like those who receive the Word with _____ but are soon offended when _____ comes. The seed among the thorns is like when the cares of _____ choke the seed of God's Word and it becomes _____.

But that which is sown on good ground is like those who _____ the word and _____ it and it brings forth _____ in their life.

B. Stilling the Storm – Mark 4:35-41

Correcting Sentences

Cross out the wrong word or phrase and write the correction on the line.

1. The disciples were crossing the Sea of Galilee one morning.

2. They left a few people on the shore and took Jesus with them.

3. A great thunderstorm came up. _____

4. Jesus was asleep in the bow of the ship. _____

5. The disciples called Jesus when the ship began to sink.

6. Jesus looked at the waves and said "Be still."

7. The rain ceased and there was a great calm. _____

8. The disciples were excited that even the wind obeyed Jesus.

9. Jesus said to the disciples, "Why are ye so sad? How is it that you have no faith?"

Discussion questions

1. The seed of God's Word must fall on good ground to bring forth fruit. How can our stony hearts be made into good ground?

2. Why should the disciples not have been afraid during the storm since Jesus was on board? What should this teach us?
