Lesson 16

Healing the Blind Man and the Good Shepherd

While Jesus is in Jerusalem for the Feast of Tabernacles He heals a blind man on the Sabbath Day. Now the Pharisees vent their anger not only upon Jesus but also upon those who confess Him.

When Jesus hears that the blind man was cast out of the temple he teaches them how He is the door and the Good Shepherd, but Jewish leaders are but hirelings.

A. Healing the Blind Man - Read John 9:1-38.

Correct the sentences – Cross out each wrong word or phrase and write the correct one at the end of the sentence.

1. The Pharisees asked who did sin, this man or his parents, that he was born blind.

2. Jesus answered that it was neither him or his parents but that the works of Satan would be manifest. _____
3. Jesus anointed the eyes of the blind man with oil. _____
4. He sent the blind man to go and wash in the pool of Bethesda. _____
5. The blind man returned with clay on his eyes. _____
6. It was the Passover when Jesus healed this man. _____
7. They brought the blind man to the Pharisees. _____

8. When the Pharisees asked this man what he thought of Jesus, he said that He was a King. _____
9. The Pharisees called this man's friends to ask if it was truly the blind man.

10. The Jews had already agreed that any man that would confess Jesus would be cast out of the temple. _____
11. The Jews said, "Thou art his disciple; but we are John's disciples." _____
12. Jesus asked the Pharisees, "Dost thou believe on the Son of God?" _____

B. The Good Shepherd – John 10:1-21

Fill in the Blanks

Jesus begins by warning that we must enter the sheepfold through the _____ and not by climbing over the _____ as a thief or robber. A good shepherd calleth his _____ by name and they follow him since they know his _____. Jesus said that He was the _____ by which His sheep must enter and that he was the _____ who gives His life for His sheep. The thief only comes to _____ and _____. The hireling _____ since he doesn't care for the sheep.

As a good shepherd Jesus will lay down His _____ for His sheep. Jesus already tells them that He has _____ not only to lay down His life but also to _____ it up again also.

Many of the Jews, not understanding what Jesus said, thought that Jesus had a _____ or was mad, but others believed in His _____.

Questions to think about

1. Which of the Beatitudes does the story of the Blind Man remind you of? What does God promise to those who confess His name before men?

2. What does David say about the Lord as his shepherd in Psalm 23?
