Lesson 7

Jesus Reveals Himself

After the wedding of Cana Jesus travels to Jerusalem for the feast of the Passover. Besides cleansing the temple of those who had made it a house of merchandise He also performed more miracles and revealed Himself as the Son of God..

Having heard and seen these things Nicodemus, a Pharisee, came to visit Jesus by night. Jesus taught him the most important lesson; “Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” Nicodemus had to learn that it is the work of a triune God to save sinners.

That same lesson still comes to us. We must be born again!

A. Cleansing the Temple – Read John 2: 13 – 25

Fill in the blanks

Jesus went to Jerusalem for the feast of the _____. When He saw the people in the _____ selling animals for the _____ and changing _____ He made a _____ and drove them out. Then the Jews asked what _____ He would show them to prove that it was His _____ house. He said, “Destroy this _____ and in three days I will raise it up.” The Jews thought that He was referring to the temple building, which had taken _____ years to build, but Jesus was speaking of the _____ of His body which would be broken down and would _____ from the dead after three days.

While They were in Jerusalem Jesus did many _____ and many believed in His _____.

B.Nicodemus - John 3: 1- 17

Answer the questions

1. Who was Nicodemus?

2. Why did he come to Jesus? And why by night?

3. What did Jesus say was necessary to enter into the kingdom of heaven?

4. What did Nicodemus think that Jesus meant when He said that we must be born again?

5. How did Jesus compare the work of the Spirit with the wind?

6. What did Jesus say would happen to Him so that sinners may be saved? What did He compare this to?

Discussion Questions

1. Copy John 3:16. Why is this a special text about the way of salvation as revealed in Scripture?

2. Did Jesus come to save the whole world?
